Ravi VISH

DIRECTOR, ECONOMICS AND POLICY GROUP

Ravi Vish joined the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) in September of 2010 as Director of the agency's Economics and Policy Group. MIGA is a member of the World Bank Group that provides political risk insurance.

At MIGA, Vish oversees teams responsible for assessing project and country risks; ensuring projects that MIGA insures are developmentally sound; and verifying that project operations are consistent with good economic policy and sustainable for the host country—as well as financially sustainable for MIGA.

Vish has over thirty years of experience encompassing private sector development in emerging markets, private equity, investment banking, and project finance. In particular, he previously held senior positions with the World Bank Group's International Finance Corporation, most recently as Chief Financial Officer in Global Financial Markets, Chief Investment Officer/Manager in Global Information Communications and Technology, and Chief Investment Officer in Asia Financial Markets. Between leaving the World Bank Group in 2005 and his appointment at MIGA, Vish was Director and Senior Portfolio Advisor at DuPont Capital Management, as well as CEO, General Partner, and Chairman of the Investment Committee at WestLB Mellon Asset Management (USA). Vish has also served as Director and Head of Corporate Finance at Natwest Markets in Indonesia as well as at ING Barings in India. He joined the financial services industry in 1978 as a projects officer at the Liberian Bank for Development and Investment in Monrovia.

Vish holds an MBA and an M.S. in computer science from the University of Pennsylvania. His B. Tech is from the Indian Institute of Technology.
