

Diep Nguyen-van Houtte is Senior Manager for Climate Business at the International Finance Corporation (IFC). In this role, she leads innovation, business development, fundraising and operations for key climate tools and portfolios across industries at the IFC, including green and resilient buildings, green cities, energy transition, energy efficiency, sustainable cooling, transport and cross-sector decarbonization.